'Engagement'

This is the magic word that makes all the difference at Radio One.

Reflected in our ability to enter into a two-way conversation with the new opinion-makers of modern India - thousands of 'upscale and educated' listeners across seven of the largest Indian cities.

This attribute makes Next Mediaworks Limited one of the most exciting stories in India's radio media industry today.

Just one word. But a world of a difference.

Next Mediaworks Limited is listed on the National Stock Exchange of India and the Bombay Stock Exchange and functions through its subsidiary, namely Next Radio Limited which is engaged in the business of FM radio broadcasting with presence in seven cities across India under the 'Radio One' brand.

The QR Code on the cover, which engages the reader of this report in a more personal way, is an indicator of our strategy of 'Engagement'.

Growing twice the industry growth rate.

Generating almost 40% of revenues from innovative content.

Most liked radio station on Facebook in Delhi, Mumbai & Bangalore.

Achieved a compounded revenue growth of 12.28% in the five years ending FY 2015-16.

CHAIRMAN'S COMMUNIQUÉ

The biggest challenge in India's media industry is the economic slowdown manifested in a relative decline in advertising budgets. Consequently, there is a greater emphasis on stretching every promotional rupee the farthest.

In this context, an increasing number of corporate marketing professionals are turning to radio.

Advertisers are shifting their focus from nationwide brand-building (costly, complex, difficult to measure) exercises to tactical, localised and focused campaigns.

It is this optimism that I bring to the readers of this annual report. Your company is at the right place at the right time with the right strategy to address a unique media opportunity.

Opportunity

At Radio One, we believe that with the license renewal having been resolved for the next 15 years, a large risk has been resolved, making it possible for the Company to focus on marketing, brand building and revenue maximization.

We believe that we were among the few radio broadcasting companies in India to have paid less for our license in Phase 3 than what we paid in the previous Phase II. Besides, what we paid is a fraction of what was paid by competing newly acquired stations through auctions. This is expected to strengthen advertising rates across the foreseeable future, accelerating our break even and translating into attractive surpluses for our stakeholders.

opportunity.

Strategic differentiation

At Radio One, we are optimistic of our prospects because we have selected to play the game differently.

In a sector marked by scale, we have resolved to be a contrarian: not the largest with the biggest Balance Sheet but the most profitable radio broadcasting company with a pragmatic Balance Sheet.

This perspective has influenced our capital allocation, content mix, people retention, advertiser engagement and virtually defined our personality.

The result is that the Company expects to remain largely insulated from margins volatility in an economic slowdown.

The company has gradually evolved from a conventional generic and mass-driven personality of most Indian broadcasting companies to a 'masstige' personality, marked by the ability to reach a large audience on the one hand coupled with a certain prestige element on the other. We believe that in a world where most broadcasting companies play the game for scale, reflected in the ability to be present in the largest number of cities and address the largest number pan-India listeners, the contrarian reality works better: select only the best markets, limit the target audience and produce differentiated customised content around ground-level needs in the cities of our presence and constantly engaged our audiences.

One of our biggest differentiators is that we have selected to address the young modern Indian, as opposed to the conventional sectoral response of addressing all kinds of listeners. This audience is upwardly mobile, needs to graduate to the next best product or idea, is a willing spender and seeks value-adding radio content.

We address these well-educated, upscale, aspiring, cosmopolitan and youthful individuals through a complement of focused content: finance, sports, fitness, food, travel, entertainment, real estate, automobiles, books and theatre and interesting global trends, among others – as opposed to prevailing celebrity gossip and small talk. We do not just deliver monologues; we engage in a two-way conversation with our listeners more than possibly any other radio station in the country today with an 'interactivity score' of more than 70% during our day-parts. We have created successful value-adding content properties through the prudent use of celebrity hosts. We have extended our on-air content to social media in recognition of the fact that majority of our upscale listeners are always online. The measurability of our approach - modern-day 'listenership currency system' - makes it possible for advertisers to establish that their money was well spent, transforming what could have been only a transaction into a multi-year relationship.

Culture of conservatism

At Radio One, we treat our radio stations with strategic differentiation and fiscal conservatism, the bedrock of our sustainability.

We treated each radio station as a profit centre that must meet its own expenses and generate a targeted surplus. We do not spend on marketing costs to enhance the appeal of our radio station, relying on viral growth of our audiences through clear differentiation, great programming and high engagement. We have created an invigorating work environment that has maximized people retention and productivity.

Complementing these initiatives, coupled with stronger engagements with big clients, should translate into attractive free cash surpluses across the foreseeable future.

Looking ahead

I believe that the radio is the public medium of the future.

The medium addresses reach and engagement and is relatively low cost; longer urban commutes have made this medium increasingly relevant; smartphones have FM radio built into them; it is an effective mass medium for creating 'behaviour and attitude change' in customers.

From an advertiser's perspective, radio is the most cost-effective medium for public engagement. The number of new advertisers coming on to radio and 'radio-only advertisers' is growing significantly. With radio inventories being relatively limited, rate increases have already begun to happen. The more radio dovetails the digital medium, radio impact could be faster.

Going forward, the Company will continue to pursue positive change that benefits its industry, regional audiences, advertisers and shareholders.

Operational Review

In conversation with Vineet Singh Hukmani - Managing Director & CEO, Next Radio Limited

Q Were you pleased with the working of the Company during FY 2015-16

A The principal factor was that our FM radio licenses were renewed for a period of 15 years. Migration for the existing operators from Phase II to Phase III was based on price discovery in the auctions forming the basis for migration of the existing players to a new 15 year license. Our company was required to pay a net ₹126 cr as license fee for the 15 years license The completion of the migration from Phase II to Phase III and the funding of this aggregate license fee represented the twin achievements of the Company during the year under review.

Q The big question is whether the Company has compromised the integrity of its Balance Sheet in bidding for a license extension for the next decade and a half.

A The principal point that we wish to make is that we have, on the contrary, strengthened our Balance Sheet and overall competitiveness. Permit me to explain: During the earlier Phase, we paid ₹97 cr for a license tenure of ten years; based on this, we assumed that it would have been reasonable to budget for ₹150 cr for a 15-year tenure (based on a proportionate increase) coupled with a reasonable premium for the intervening inflation. As it turned out, we were required to pay only ₹138 cr for the forthcoming 15 years, which is attractively lower.

Q What provides you with the optimism that the Company will be able to recoup its license fees in quick time?

A There are a number of factors that inspire this optimism.

One, there has been a growing traction of our brand, which is visibly reflected in our growing revenues. For instance, by the last quarter of FY 2015-16, the Company had reported 16 successive quarters of revenue growth, inspiring the optimism that this trend is likely to sustain.

Two, our business is driven by knowledge capital and here I must indicate that this capital (programming, sales and support) was adequately protected during the year under review – through 97% retention. On the one hand, our knowledge capital made it possible to sustain the momentum it created; on the other, our people continuity made it possible to sustain and grow existing relationships. We maximized people retention through timely appraisals and increments.

Q Is there any reality that could translate into the Company's long-term advantage?

A The Company did not just pay license fees that were lower than the retrospective average but also lower than the peers who had paid high price for acquiring new frequencies. In each of the centres we renewed our license for fees that were considerably lower than either the peak fees or the average. The result is that our aggregate migration fees of ₹138 cr in the seven cities was lower than the peak auction price paid by other FM broadcasters for acquiring new frequency in those cities. We believe that this represents an attractive delta between what our competitors will need to recover through profits and what we will need to recover. The reality is that through this bidding process we believe that we have laid the foundation for the next round of sustainable growth at our Company.

Q Shareholders would like to know whether the Company has risked the integrity of its Balance Sheet in mobilizing the funds for the aggregate license fee?

A The Company selected to mobilise a net ₹126 cr that was required to be paid (after netting off a ₹12 cr credit from the government for the preponed discontinuation of the license through a mix of debt (₹80 cr), preference shares from one of India's most successful private investors (₹25 cr) and internal accruals. We believe that this optimal funding mix protects the interests of our investors without excessive equity dilution and the flexibility to repay debt through accruals. This validates the point: We did not just pay license fees that were considerably lower than the market average; we funded this through a mix of resources that will enable us to enhance shareholder value in future.

Q How is this reality an indicator of the Company's prospective competitiveness?

A The simple way of understanding the prevailing dynamics is that the Company has been expensed at today's price for a license fee that will be relevant for the next 15 years even as it stands to generate revenues based on the prevailing increase in time-slots across the next decade and a half. This effectively means that while our principal costs have been capped at price paid in the year 2005, our revenues are open-ended and only likely to increase across the foreseeable future.

Q There is one concern. The Company's equity capital appears significantly large for profit accretion to translate into meaningful earnings per share.

A The Company is seized of this reality. It is exploring options whereby a financial restructuring between itself and its 72 per cent subsidiary in which the radio station business is conducted can unleash shareholder value. Besides, we believe that a combination of the prevailing business traction and that we do not have any large capital expenditure on the horizon should enable us to become debt-free in the near future. Thereafter, the business is likely to generate cash validating its business model.

Our key differentiators

Game-changer: Engagement over reach

At Radio One, our engagement-driven approach is marked by a presence in only seven of the largest Indian cities (best national proxy). This focused approach has made it possible to moderate our capital expenditure and strengthen our brand ('Think upscale, think Radio One') among listeners and advertisers. The result is that we have enhanced our viability around seven-city engagement leadership.

Game-changer: Audience differentiation

At Radio One, since we are not a mass-focused broadcasting station, our content addresses the aspirational needs of upscale educated Indians. We do not seek to merely entertain;

we seek to catalyse the listener's upgradation to the next level of change. This differentiated content has positioned us as a radio broadcaster that has extended beyond the

'empty reach' of typical radio broadcasters, engaging our audience through distinctive content comprising food, sport, music and entertainment, travel and human stories.

Game-changer: Differentiated music slant

Music accounts for the largest share of our content. Within this space we customized content around the prevailing flavour of each city of our presence. In Mumbai & Delhi, we play international music while others play Hindi music. In Kolkata, we play Bollywood retro (while others focus on English and Bengali songs); in Ahmedabad we play Bollywood retro (while others focus on Hindi and Gujarati); in Bengaluru, we play Bollywood songs (while others play Kannada and Hindi); in Chennai we play Bollywood songs (while others play Tamil and English); in Pune, we play Bollywood songs (while others play Marathi and Hindi). Within each of these formats we seek to graduate the listener to the next level – a recording of Lata Mangeshkar's performance in Royal Albert Hall, as distinct from the singer's usual film tracks.

Game-changer: Innovative content

At Radio One, our core strength is the development of superior content. For example, our whole-day 'EDM music' generated engaged audiences (on-air and social media) with attractive monetization. We are the only radio station to run a monetized travel show ('Get Some Sun') with celebrity actor Ranveer Singh across seven cities resulting in a 'sunchaser' tribe of 120,000 people on social media. In just a year (FY 2015-16), we created more than 40 such on-air and online opportunities. The result: almost 40% of our total revenue are derived from innovation and exclusive clients (60% from spots), one of the highest such proportions in India's radio sector. This makes it possible for us to be relatively more insulated against the impact of an economic slowdown.

Game-changer: People retention

Our greatest strength is our rich people experience. This is the result of a low 3.8% attrition in the last 10 years resulting in consistent radio jockey retention and stability in client relationships. Besides, we have one of the lowest number of people in each station given the scale of our business, strengthening our above-average productivity.

Game-changer: Large and compatible clientele

We have marquee clients comprising Maruti Suzuki, Paytm, LIC, Flipkart, HDFC Life and ICICI Lombard. On the basis of our premium positioning, Maruti

Suzuki launched its premium Nexa showrooms exclusive through our radio network. LIC markets premium life insurance products through our broadcast network. Paytm used our radio network exclusively to educate customers on e-wallet advantages.

Game-changer: High interactive engagement

At Radio One, more than 70 per cent of our content involves two-way communication between the radio jockey and the listener. This translates into higher audience engagement and loyalty, creating a base for advertiser accretion.

Game-changer: Social media integration

We have successfully integrated on-air content with social media. We have largest number of 'likes' across any Indian FM radio broadcasting station. This makes it possible to maximize recall (and ensure that listeners can always catch up with what they might have missed on radio), increasing engagement. Besides, this has provided our advertisers with a measurability of their impact and a wider platform for engagement with prospective consumers.

Game-changer: Superior financials

We believe that our ability to focus on engagement (over reach) has had positive financial implications – lower people cost, zero marketing expenditure, year-in-year profitable growth, the ability to generate almost 40% of revenues from innovative content helping counter sectoral weakness, grow almost 2x

the industry growth rate, each station a profit centre and one of the highest EBIDTA margins in our sector.

Management discussion and analysis

This management discussion concerns the performance of Next Mediaworks Limited, consolidated with Next Radio Limited, which is the substantive part of our business. Through this analysis, we have attempted to provide shareholders an indication of both the performance of the past year and the future growth plans of the Company.

A. MEDIA INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS

1 Indian economy

Even in the face of a global economic slowdown, the Indian economy is set on a path of rapid growth. The country's GDP grew 7.6% during FY 2015-16 compared with a growth of 7.3% in 2014-15, 6.9% in FY2013-14 and 5.1% in FY2012-13. The growth is based on a new methodology of calculating GDP with 2011-12 as the base year, as opposed to 2004-05. The economy remained relatively immune to inflation, fiscal deficit, weak demand, external account imbalances and an oscillating rupee as was evident in FY2011-12 and FY2012-13. India's GDP growth is expected to accelerate to 8% in FY2017-18 on the back of significant increase in investment inflow and favourable oil prices. (Source: World Bank)

Over the past, a direct relationship between economic conditions and revenues generated by radio channels has been visibly identified. In this context, we expect that India's fast-growing economy is certainly going to positively impact the country's radio industry.

2 Media business overview, India

The Indian media industry is a growing sector of the Indian economy, demonstrating a strong phase of growth, backed by rising consumer demand and improving advertising revenues.

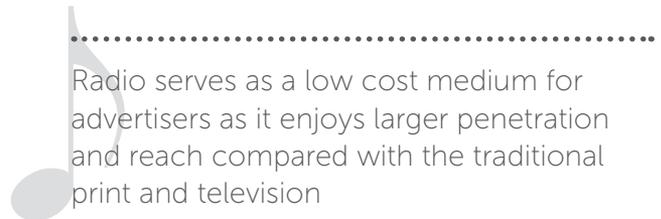

The Indian media and entertainment sector is expected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 13.9 per cent year-on-year to reach a size of ₹196,400 cr (US$ 28.82 billion) by 2019.

In FY 2015-16, the overall media and entertainment industry grew 11.7 per cent over 2014-15. The largest segment, India's television industry, is expected to maintain its strong growth momentum led by subscription revenues, representing a year-on-year growth of about 13.2 per cent to reach ₹60,000 cr (US$ 8.8 billion) in 2015.

The foreign direct investment (FDI) inflows in the information and broadcasting (I&B) sector (including print media) in the period April 2000 – December 2015 stood at US$ 4.55 billion, as per data released by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (DIPP). (Source: Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India)

The revenue from advertising is expected to grow at a CAGR of 13 per cent and will exceed ₹81,600 cr (US$ 12.29 billion) by 2019 from ₹41,400 cr (US$ 6.24 billion) in 2014.

The media ecosystem has many players, including content creators, physical and digital content distributors, storage and telecom service providers and intellectual property managers. With the current government's optimistic outlook, business sentiment has been positive and strengthened by a number of growth-promoting policy initiatives taken in recent months.

Radio serves as a low cost medium for advertisers as it enjoys larger penetration and reach compared with the traditional print and television

B. RADIO INDUSTRY – OUTLOOK AND OPPORTUNITIES

Radio had a good year with better long term prospects. The industry continues to require regulatory interventions as there is some need of reform. FM Radio nevertheless is now becoming an integral part of many media plans.

1. Industry Outlook

Some of the key facets of the radio industry include the following:

- Business model is mainly advertisement-driven.
- Radio serves as a low cost medium for advertisers as it enjoys larger penetration and reach compared with the traditional print and television
- Phase II licensing made business possible; phase III is expected to yield better business prospects. Phase III is expected to increase geographic coverage from 40% to 75%, thereby helping drive up advertising revenues as advertisers will be more willing to advertise on a per channel basis given enhanced coverage

The FM radio industry in India has been growing from a size of ₹1,900 cr in 2015 to ₹2,300 cr in 2016, recording a CAGR of 15.2%

over the past 8 years. (Source: The Financial Express)

The FICCI-KPMG report projects radio to be the fastest-growing medium (compared to TV, print and OOH), trailing only to digital. This strong growth in the past has been fuelled by the opportunities afforded to radio by the economic slowdown. As is well known around the world, radio thrives under poor economic conditions. Marketers are forced to cut down on brand spending and divert more resources to promotional spending and this works directly to radio's advantage. Radio is the medium for people on the move. It is the last medium consumed before a consumer enters a shopping arcade etc. It is for this reason that radio is so popular for promotions.

There is yet another significant reason to expect a strong growth performance from radio in the next few years. The phase-3 expansion of radio is finally on after it was first announced in July 2011. In a fast-evolving media landscape, radio was the only medium that had not expanded since 2006.

During the financial year 2015-16, the radio industry maintained its share of approx. 4% in the media and entertainment sector. The E-commerce companies were the biggest spenders on advertisements through the radio medium. In spite of the various challenges faced by the real estate sector, there was hardly any reduction in their advertising spends. The share of listeners tuning on to radio from home also saw an increase, especially in the four metros – Mumbai, Delhi, Kolkata and Bengaluru from 77.7% to 79.1%.

2. Phase III Policy

In 2015, the radio sector witnessed the much-awaited movement in Phase III auctions with the government giving its go-ahead for partial auctions across 69 cities where potentially 135 channels were up for grabs. The completion of Stage-I of the Phase-III auctions and the migration of the existing operators from Phase-II to Phase-III provided the required fillip to the industry, which is evident from some of the below mentioned benefits that Phase-III offers to the FM radio operators:

- License period increased to 15 years.
- Lower amortization costs for FM radio operators migrating from Phase II to Phase III as compared to Phase II or the market discovered price.
- The FM broadcasting company may, with prior approval of the Ministry of Information &

Broadcasting, dilute the total shareholding of its largest Indian shareholder to a level below 51% only after a period of three years from the date on which all the channels allotted.

- Multiple Frequencies allowed in same city
- Networking across all cities allowed.

In terms of geographic spread, currently, private FM is available in only 40% of the country. With the completion of Phase III, the medium will be available in 75% of the country. It will provide private radio industry the much-needed reach in order to be a national play. Post-completion of phase III, owing to deeper penetration and availability of the medium, new advertisers are likely to invest in radio advertising in the coming days. The radio operators can now provide advertisers a much wider bouquet of channels in some states and can become a viable alternative to the print advertising industry. This will enable more and larger ad campaigns on radio and the industry could grow by around 20-25 per cent within a year of operationalizing the new frequencies.

3. Penetration into digital media

Digital advertising will account for 12.7% of all ad spending in 2016, up from 9.9% in 2015. (source-livemint) Media companies are already seeing their consumers move online, adding to their regular media consumption. Worldwide experience indicates that savvy media brands are able to grow their audience size by making themselves available online. The Company has started a number of initiatives which will grow our online presence and allow us to expand our audience and advertiser base through a combination of radio and digital media.

C. OPERATIONAL AND FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

1. Operational Performance

(a) Migration under Phase-III Policy:

Next Radio Limited ("NRL") has renewed its existing seven licenses for 15 years and opted not to bid for any new cities in Phase III as NRL did not want to sacrifice existing profitability for a speculative future. However, the radio pie will grow and we will gain from that momentum. Also, players who have paid expensive prices for new licenses will drive ad rates up which is good for the whole industry.

This has allowed us to get higher advertising revenues through a 'pull' from the advertiser and keep our costs to the lowest in that market. Keeping this learning in front of us, we have gone about implementing strategic changes in our programming in a few of our key stations. We have started to see positive results from these initiatives. Some of these comprise:

- Building locally mass differentiated stations with high 'associative value' in each city
- Reducing operating costs significantly through a combination of a more focused programming and sales approach
- Creation of properties resulting in increased margins

The strategy for profitability with our current stations and our approach of 'locally mass differentiated stations with high associative value', allows us to concentrate on staying with a 'metro network' and not try to compete with larger players in building a nationwide network.

(b) Awards:

NRL's radio station at Chennai, which was the first radio station in Chennai to become a 100 per cent Bollywood station, won an award at the prestigious ad club awards in Chennai - The Maddys 2016 – for its on-air campaign 'Colours of Chennai'. The on-air campaign was designed to involve the listeners of Radio One and to create a high level of live interaction of what the colour or nuances of Chennai were and how this had now changed to become a city that accepts global cultures and progress.

2. Financial performance of the Company in FY 2015-16:

During the year, Next Mediaworks Ltd. registered a loss before tax of ₹11,963.80 lakhs, as compared to a loss of ₹359.71 lakhs for the financial year 2014-15. The loss in the current financial year is due to the fact that the Company has provided an amount of ₹11,710 Lakhs on account of diminution in the value of the Company's investment in its subsidiary viz. Next Radio Limited ("NRL"). The said diminution has resulted pursuant to the approval of Scheme of Capital Reduction (the "Scheme") of NRL by the Hon'ble High Court at Bombay on 1st April 2016. As per the Scheme, 68.14 equity shares for every 100 equity shares of NRL were cancelled against the accumulated losses of NRL. The operating cost of the Company has reduced from ₹253.39 Lakhs in the financial year 2014-15 to ₹206.52 Lakhs in the current financial year, a decline of 18.5%.

3. Financial performance of the Subsidiary Company's (FM Radio operations) in FY 2015-16:

During the year under review, the business income of the Company's operating subsidiary viz. Next Radio Limited increased by 16.43% and stood at ₹7,618.23 Lakhs as against ₹6,542.88 Lakhs in the previous year.

During the financial year 2015-16, the Company paid an annual license fees of ₹1,393.56 Lakhs as against ₹394.75 Lakhs in the previous year. This substantial increase was on account of the increase in the annual license fees by the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting ("MIB") under Phase III. The MIB laid down a formula wherein the FM radio operators were to pay the annual license fees as the higher of: (a) 4% of Gross Revenue of the FM Radio Channel or (b) 2.5% of the Non-Refundable One Time Entry Fee. The MIB applied this formula to even those FM radio operators who have only migrated their existing licenses into Phase III. The Company's subsidiary viz. Next Radio Limited, alongwith other FM broadcasters, challenged the method adopted by MIB in computing the annual license fees and have filed Writ Petition before the Hon'ble High Court, Delhi. Though the Company has accounted the annual license fees in its books of accounts, the matter is sub-judice.

5. Risks, Concerns and Challenges

1. Macro-economic risk

The primary risk facing all media companies at this time is the prospect of slowing investment and demand in the Indian economy. This has a direct bearing on advertising spends and any perceived slowdown will directly result in a shrinking of advertising budgets and impede the growth of all media.

2. Business risk:

With increased proliferation of the digital medium through smartphones and other portable devices, terrestrial radio stations need to redefine their future path in order that this represents an opportunity and not a risk.

Moreover, the delay in the constitution of the Copyright Board also impedes adjudication of issues related to royalty.

3. Operational and financial risks

The risk management process established by Next Mediaworks Limited (NMW) and monitored and reviewed by the Board of NMW periodically has identified several risks with the effect that risk mitigation plans have been put in place. Risks are periodically reviewed and brought to the Board's attention for their intervention.

4. Price wars

Hypercompetitive forces in operation in the industry are forcing price wars. Small players openly engage whereas large players/ leaders do not admit price wars, wanting to protect their market share. Airtime inventory is perishable and hence advertisers play hard ball till the last minute, forcing price wars.

5. Talent issues

Radio jockey (RJ) is the star of the radio station and drives listenership to the station. RJs and other radio staff want to stay in the metro market because of greater opportunities. Hence, shortage of talent, such as star RJs, forces players to poach from other players driving up the cost of talent acquisition.

Besides, limited size of the industry also poses problems in terms of attracting new talent.

6. Issues with internet radio

Digital radio is another area where the industry is struggling. Even other players have tried their hands at Internet radio through online stream, podcasts and platforms such as YouTube and Sound Cloud to expand their reach and enhance consumer engagement, not much headway has been made in the direction. The fact that music royalty is payable for the internet streaming music coupled with the fact that there is very low or no revenue, companies are forced to stream customised content that has left them handicapped on the digital platform.

6. Human Resource

Your Company continues to focus strongly on attracting and retaining the best talent across various functions of its businesses.

The compensation strategy is based on the principle of 'Pay for performance' and has been implemented across all levels to ensure alignment of remuneration to individual performance. The said practice is followed for all business and functional heads.

Maintaining global standards on the employment front and keeping pace with the ever developing technology in the field, the Company has undertaken several initiatives to make its workforce more efficient, well organized, professional and skilled. These steps include building high performing teams, encouraging innovation, inducting leadership at all levels, readying its people for higher roles, increasing the scope for the search of young talent and improving the hiring process to raise the talent bar.

The employee strength of the Company alongwith that of Next Radio Limited was 162 as on 31st March 2016.

7. Internal Control Systems and their adequacy:

The Company has a system of internal controls focusing on all processes to ensure integrity of the financial accounting and reporting processes of the Company to ensure compliance with all legal rules and regulations.

The Company has an Audit Committee which meets once in every quarter to review internal control systems, accounting processes, financial information, internal audit findings and other related areas including their adequacies.

During the year under review, NRL migrated its existing licenses in all the seven (7) cities from Phase-II to Phase-III. The said licenses, allotted to NRL by the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting ("MIB"), are valid for a period of fifteen (15) years. The financial year 2015-16 was an important year since successful migration of all the licenses has given NRL a huge opportunity to run its business for another 15 years. In order to migrate into Phase-III, NRL was required to pay One Time Migration Fees. These fees were funded by debt availed by NRL from bank and by issue of preference shares to Rakesh Jhunjhunwala. NRL also paid fees for migration and the annual license fees in advance. As a result, there has been an increase in the finance cost of NRL.

Despite the growing market competition, the revenues of NRL have shown increase. During the year under review, NRL earned revenues of ₹7,618.23 Lacs as against ₹6,542.88 Lacs in the previous year. Meaning of internal financial controls over Financial Reporting

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and under historical cost convention. The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the company and are consistent with those used in previous year.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

a) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management of the company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of income and expenses of the period and the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as on the date of the financial statements. Difference, if any, between the actual results and estimates is recognized in the period in which the results are known.

b) Tangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of fixed asset is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses for existing fixed assets, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Gains or losses arising from disposal of fixed assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the fixed asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is disposed.

c) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment, if any.

d) Depreciation

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on a straight-line basis using the rates arrived at based on the useful lives estimated by the management, or those prescribed under the Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, whichever is higher. Depreciation on additions during the year is provided on a pro-rata basis from the date of addition.

e) Impairment

At each Balance Sheet date the carrying amount of the assets is tested for impairment. If there is any indication of impairment, the company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss. If at the Balance Sheet date there is an indication that the previously assessed impairment loss no longer exist, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the assets is reflected at the recoverable amount.

f) Leases

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the inception of the lease term at the lower of fair value of the leased property and present value of minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating lease. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss on accrual basis.

g) Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Current investments are carried in the financial statements at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual investment basis. Long-term investments are carried at costs. However provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline, other than temporary decline, in the value on investments.

On disposal of investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged off or credited to the statement of profit and loss.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

Other Matters

Our aforesaid reports under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting in so far as it relates to three subsidiary companies which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India.

- Minority Interest in the consolidated financial statement is identified and recognized after taking into consideration:

- As per requirement of AS-28 "Impairment of Assets" issued by ICAI, the management is of the opinion that there is no impairment of goodwill (on consolidation) except as provided in the financial statement.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

a) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management of the company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of income and expenses of the period and the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as on the date of the financial statements. Difference, if any, between the actual results and estimates is recognized in the period in which the results are known.

b) Tangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of fixed asset is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses for existing fixed assets, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Gains or losses arising from disposal of fixed assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the fixed asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is disposed.

c) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment, if any.

Intangible assets i.e. computer software's are amortized over a period of five years.

'The One Time Entry Fees' paid by the Company to acquire FM broadcasting license has been classified as an intangible asset. The benefit of this will be derived over a period of 15 years, and hence it is being amortized accordingly.

d) Depreciation

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on a straight-line basis using the rates arrived at based on the useful lives estimated by the management, or those prescribed under the Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, whichever is higher. Depreciation on additions during the year is provided on a pro-rata basis from the date of addition.

e) Impairment

At each Balance Sheet date the carrying amount of the assets is tested for impairment. If there is any indication of impairment, the company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss. If at the Balance Sheet date there is an indication that the previously assessed impairment loss no longer exist, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the assets is reflected at the recoverable amount.

f) Leases

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the inception of the lease term at the lower of fair value of the leased property and present value of minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating lease. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss on accrual basis.

g) Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

On initial recognition, all investments are measured at cost. The cost comprises of purchase price and directly attributable acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties.

Current investments are carried in the financial statements at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual investment basis. Long-term investments are carried at costs. However provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline, other than temporary decline, in the value on investments.

On disposal of investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged off or credited to the statement of profit and loss.

h) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured.

FM Radio Broadcasting

Revenue from radio broadcasting is recognized on accrual basis and net of service tax.

Interest

Interest Income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable interest rate.

k) Income Taxes

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax is determined on the basis of taxable income and tax credits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax is recognized, subject to the consideration of prudence, on timing differences, being the difference between taxable incomes and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

Deferred Tax Asset arising on account of unabsorbed tax losses and unabsorbed depreciation are accounted for on prudence basis when there is a virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax asset can be realized.

l) Earnings Per Share

Basic earning per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to the equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividends and attributable expenses) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity share outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

m) Provisions

A provision is recognized when the company has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the obligation. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

n) Contingent liabilities, contingent assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed.

o) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents for the purposes of cash flow statement comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

p) Measurement of EBITDA

The company has elected to present earning before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) as a separate line item on the face of the statement of profit and loss. The company measures EBITDA on the basis of profit / (loss) from continuing operations. In its measurement, the company does not include depreciation and amortization expense, finance costs and tax expense.

1. Corporate Information

Next Radio Limited ('the company') is a public company domiciled in India and incorporated under the provisions of Companies Act, 1956. The radio business was initially promoted as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Next Mediaworks Limited, which later became a joint venture between Next Mediaworks Ltd. (formerly "MiD- Day Multimedia Limited") and BBC Worldwide Holdings B. V. (BBC). Next Radio Limited was among the first private players to venture into private FM broadcasting and presently has established "Radio One" as the premium FM Brand in top 7 cities of the country being Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Kolkata, Bangalore, Pune, and Ahmedabad.

2. Basis of preparation

The Financial statements of the company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in India (Indian GAAP). The Company has prepared these financial statements to comply with all material respects with the accounting standard specified u/s 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules 2014 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act 2013. The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and under historical cost convention. The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the company and are consistent with those used in previous year.

3. Summary of significant accounting policies

a) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management of the company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of income and expenses of the period and the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as on the date of the financial statements. Difference, if any, between the actual results and estimates is recognized in the period in which the results are known.

b) Tangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of fixed asset is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses for existing fixed assets, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Gains or losses arising from disposal of fixed assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the fixed asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is disposed.

c) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment, if any.

'The One Time Entry Fees' paid by the Company to acquire FM broadcasting license has been classified as an intangible asset. The benefit of this will be derived over a period of 15 years, and hence it is being amortized accordingly.

d) Depreciation

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on a straight-line basis using the rates arrived at based on the useful lives estimated by the management, or those prescribed under the Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, whichever is higher. Depreciation on additions during the year is provided on a pro-rata basis from the date of addition.

e) Impairment

At each Balance Sheet date the carrying amount of the assets is tested for impairment. If there is any indication of impairment, the company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss. If at the Balance Sheet date there is an indication that the previously assessed impairment loss no longer exist, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the assets is reflected at the recoverable amount.

f) Leases

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the inception of the lease term at the lower of fair value of the leased property and present value of minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating lease. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss on accrual basis.

g) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured.

FM Radio Broadcasting

Revenue from radio broadcasting is recognized on accrual basis and net of Service tax.

Interest

Interest Income is recognized on a time proportion basis, taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable interest rate.

Others

As per Industry practice, Income / expenditure of a reciprocal nature not involving any monetary transaction has not been considered.

h) Foreign currency translation

Initial recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of transaction.

Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date.

The exchange differences arising on the settlement of the monetary items or on reporting such items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded in previous financial statements are recognized in the Statement of Profit & Loss.

i) Retirement and other employee benefits

Short term employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering services such as salaries, wages, etc. are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Defined Contribution Plan: The Company's contribution to the state governed employees' provident fund scheme is a defined contribution plan. The contribution paid / payable under the scheme is recognized during the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Defined Benefit Plan: The Company's gratuity fund managed through the gratuity trust is company's defined benefit plan. The present value of obligations under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method.

Long Term Employee Benefits: The obligation of long term employee benefits such as long term compensated absences is recognized in the same manner as in the case of defined benefit plans.

j) Income Taxes

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax is determined on the basis of taxable income and tax credits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax is recognized, subject to the consideration of prudence, on timing differences, being the difference between taxable incomes and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

Deferred Tax Asset arising on account of unabsorbed tax losses and unabsorbed depreciation are accounted for on prudence basis when there is a virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax asset can be realized.

k) Earnings Per Share

Basic earning per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to the equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividends and attributable expenses) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity share outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue, share spilt and reverse share spilt (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

l) Provisions

A provision is recognized when the company has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the obligation. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. These estimates are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

m) Contingent liabilities, contingent assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

n) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents for the purposes of cash flow statement comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

o) Measurement of EBITDA

The Company has elected to present earning before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) as a separate line item on the face of the Statement of Profit and Loss. The Company measures EBITDA on the basis of profit / (loss) from continuing operations. In its measurement, the company does not include depreciation and amortization expense, finance costs and tax expense.
